

PARIS EXPOSITION, 1889.

THE HIGHEST HONORS

Ever conferred on a Manufacturer at a Field Trial, or at a World's Fair.

OFFICIAL REPORT

By Professor Maximilian Ringleman, Government Expert in charge of the Great Trial of HARVESTING MACHINES at Noisel. near Paris, August, 1890.

AWARDS BY THE GOVERNMENT.

1st PRIZE, "OBJECT OF ART" WALTER A. WOOD CO.

1st PRIZE, "OBJECT OF ART," MASSEY MANUF'G CO.

The Massey Co. claim that they received the only HIGHEST HONORS at the Great Field Trial. The truth is, both companies received an "Object of Art" or a "Bronze Figure," this being the 1st Prize for good work—there is no "Grand Object of Art." The word "Grand" is only added by the Massey Co. to make the award look greater than it really is; but while they take credit for it they do not, with their "usual frankness" give it to the WALTER A. WOOD CO. who shared the HIGHEST HONORS equally with them. There is nothing to gain by exaggeration or misrepresentation.

Awards by the Exposition Authorities.

1st Prize, "Grand Prize," WALTER A. WOOD CO.

2ND PRIZE, "GOLD MEDAL," MASSEY MANUF'G CO.

The Farmers of Canada can decide from above facts as to who is entitled to Highest Honors and who the Manufacturer is who carried them off.

The entire output of 20,000 Binders of the Walter A. Wood Co. for 1889 is of the Single Apron Pattern, and no more Three Apron Machines will be made by this Company. This is proof positive as to the Binder which they themselves consider to be the most improved.
